

MAINE ANTIQUE DIGEST

Dmitriy & Co., New York City, asked $13,500 for the 112" long 18th-century Italian sawbuck dining table of bleached pine; on it is an 18th-century staircase model, a birch bowl for $2300, and hand-blown glass bottles for $325, $325, and $450. The painting by Monique Chicot, a contemporary French artist, was $14,500.

The 19th-century French wine table with an elliptical top was $10,500. On the cupboard are Vietnamese war shields of inlaid wood, priced at $11,700 each.
